MARTIGNETTI
REAL ESTATE

Additional Information: 237 Lexington was purchased as a land sale and subsequently developed into a Class A office property in 2001. No detail was overlooked in the quality of the construction and finished provided. The property functions as a boutique office property with a number of uses including a bank, fitness center, law office, engineering firm, insurance agency, dentist, orthodontist, wealth management and sales offices.

Existing opportunities include the more budget friendly lower level space in this first class office property. This allows prospective businesses to join a vibrant group of tenants at a landmark property with fantastic accessibility and neighboring retail amenities. Tenants are able to walk to neighboring restaurants and retailers, make use of ample free parking and likewise have access to MBTA transportation including an express service to Boston.
